Change in Leadership at ORR

On April 17th, the Governor announced some changes to the Wisconsin Office of Recovery and Reinvestment (ORR). Gary Wolters, MG&E CEO, who has directed the office since its inception will be returning full-time to Madison Gas and Electric on May 8th. On May 11th, Chris Patton, currently a member of the Governor's Office staff will take over as ORR director. ORR 2.0 will focus on accountability and implementation issues of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act.
