

Labor Force

For the class of 2001-02, 17,833 questionnaires were mailed, with 7,376 responding, a response rate of 41 percent.

Of those responding, 6,892 are in the labor force. A total of 6,769 of those in the labor force are employed; 5,015 are employed in jobs related to the training received; 1,623 are employed in jobs not related to their training; and 131 did not indicate if their jobs were related.

Employment Location

Of the 6,769 employed respondents, 4,423 are employed in the district where they received their training. Another 1,632 are employed in Wisconsin but not in the district where they were trained. 521 graduates are employed out of state, while 193 did not indicate where they were employed.